7. BUSHO PRIZES

Besides the beautiful statues created by Solide Art Ltd. this time again awards were offered by Hungarian Filmunio, Kodak, the National Digital Data Archive, the Soltész Advertising Agency and Extreme Digital.

The Prizes of the National Student Jury
(Tóháti Zsuzsa, Vargha Márk Péter, Nemes-Jeles Veronika):

„The Special Mention prize goes to a movie that doesn't aim at showing more than what fits into 15 min, and refuses to involve unnecessary threads. It represents the theme in a simple, contained manner but to great effect. This film is a real short.”

ZOMBORÁCZ VIRÁG: VALAMI KÉK / SOMETHING BLUE (HUNGARY)

„The animation Special Mention award is offered to a film that is only partly animation. The animated and the real parts are well developed in themselves, but their adjusting is also outstanding. Although the jury would fancy continuing their lives in a cartoon, we understand that the heroine of Out of Erasers refuses to, as the world depicted in the movie is grim and dark-.” ERIK ROSENLUND: OUT OF ERASERS / ELFOGYOTT A RADÍR (SWEDEN – DENMARK)

„The main prize of the National Student Jury goes to the Spanish The Screamers, which is, according to the jury's unanimous opinion, is an outstanding piece of this year's huge competition section. A joke of strong effect, put aptly into short form, grows into a story on the screen due to the harmonic cooperation of the actor instruction, the cast and the photography.” ROBERTO PEREZ TOLEDO: LOS GRITONES / THE SCREAMERS / KIÁLTOZÓK (SPAIN)
